1/6/74 an Allegheny airlines plane crashed on landing in Johnstown, Pa. It was a Sunday & pilot had gone to church instead of flying med & maintenance staff in the engine ~~was~~ crisis he had chose to develop. So, the federal investigators had to wait until after midnight - after it was no longer a Sunday - before he could get enough gas to make the trip in his car.

CBS radio 2 pm 1/7/74